Salvation Army Plans
Home Service Program

Direct contact with, and immediate aid for every needy person in the United States is the aim of the Salvation Army's home service program for 1920, according to Hamilton Gardner, commander of the American Legion in Utah, who is serving as chairman of the non-sectarian advisory board directing this work locally.

Mr. Gardner said: "Whether financially, morally or physically down the Salvation Army stands every ready to extend the helping hand to any individual regardless of creed or color. It was this universal and uncompromising Christianity which marked the overwhelming success of the Salvation Army at home and abroad during the recent war. It was the attention attracted by this war work which led to the popular clamor that for more than a year has been urging the Salvation Army to expand and extend its home service work in the United States to that the remotest community may benefit from contact with this remarkable organization."

"This led to devising the present program which is declared to be the most comprehensive social service plan ever attempted."

"For over fifty years the Salvation Army has been reclaiming fallen men and women from the slums of great cities. Statistics gathered during that period show that an overwhelming majority of such unfortunates have originated from the small rural communities. This 1920 home service program aims at the social evil at its origin in the small town with the hope of preventing somewhat the great human waste that has been a constant drain upon the country."

"In this work the Salvation Army will depend for direction upon thousands of local advisory boards more than fifty of which will be established in Utah during the week, May 12 to 20. These advisory boards will be composed of prominent citizens in the various localities. They will be non-sectarian in every respect. Their sole function will be to advise and assist the central organization of the Salvation Army in rendering that practical charity which characterizes the work of this body."

Typewriting machines, valued at $17,391.118, were exported from the United States during 1919. England was the principal market, followed by France and Canada.

CLEANSE OUT THE SYSTEM AND GET READY FOR SPRING

Nearly Everyone Needs a Blood Tonic at This Season.

Possibly you are one of the thousands who cannot understand why a depressed, enervating feeling takes possession of the system as spring time approaches. If you are easily tired out, feel all run-down and have lost your energy and vigor, there is a very good reason for this condition, which you should lose no time in correcting.

Your body has brought you safely through the trying winter season, and in doing so has expended all of your stored-up energy which must now be replaced.

There has naturally been considerable wear on the system, and as spring time approaches, your body must be put back into condition. Any piece of machinery needs care and attention, and the human body is no exception.

Nearly every human ailment can be traced, one way or another, to impurities of the blood. And after a hard winter season these impurities have accumulated in the blood, and a thorough cleansing is of the greatest importance, as any slight disorder or impurity that creeps into the blood is a source of danger, for every vital organ of the body depends upon the blood supply to properly perform its functions.

Keeping well and enjoying the blessings of health is mainly a matter of resisting disease, and this depends largely upon the condition of your blood supply. If it is thin and impoverished, and has been allowed to reach a low state by the accumulation of impurities, you have not sufficient vitality to resist the millions of tiny disease germs which are ready to attack you on every hand, and they will find a fertile field in your system to spread disease.

So, right now, probably more than a any other season of the year, you should take a thorough course of treatment to cleanse the blood thoroughly and put your system in good robust condition to be prepared for the coming of summer. And of course, you will want the best blood tonic that you can obtain.

More than a hundred years ago, the Indians made an excellent blood remedy, which was handed down to posterity, and has been sold regularly in drug stores throughout the land for more than half a century. This remedy is S. S. S., which is still made from the medicinal roots and herbs gathered from the forests, and is recognized as one of the most efficient blood tonics every compounded.

A few bottles of S. S. S. just at this time will prove of great value in thoroughly cleansing the system of all accumulated impurities.

S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite, repairs the wear and tear on the system, and gives new life and a vigorous, healthy vitality. It is good alike for old and young.

CUMMINGS SAYS
REPUBLICANS
HAVE FAILEDParty Spends Year Debating
Without Recording Single Constructive Measure

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 5.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, as temporary chairman of the Democratic convention, told the delegates that during the war America acted like "a veritable crusader in the cause of truth and justice and civilization," adding that "we won the moral leadership of the world and, had the president been properly supported, America would have been the first, and not the last, to ratify the treaty of peace."

He said that the Republican party had had its opportunity and it had failed; that not only had it thus far throttled the treaty of peace, "but after a year of sterile debate it could not record the passage of one single constructive measure."

The convention tomorrow will elect a delegation of fourteen from Connecticut to the San Francisco convention. The proceedings are expected to be brief, as primary contests are believed to have settled the make-up of the delegation.

Chairman Cummings in his address enumerated many legislative measures enacted by the Democratic congresses, and coming to the war period, said that party leadership rose "to still greater heights." He challenged critics of the administration to suggest how, within the limits of human possibilities, the war could have been won more promptly and with less loss of American life.

GRAND VIZIER SEEKS
PEACE WITH REBELS

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 5.—(By The Associated Press)—Damat Ferid Pasha, the grand vizier, decided today to send Nazim Pasha, former chief of staff, and Nureddine Pasha, formerly governor of Smyrna, to Angora for the purpose of effecting a compromise with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the nationalist leader.

The efforts to induce Turkish troops to oppose Mustafa Kemal's forces appear to be becoming more difficult daily. Of three thousand recruits under training one-third drew a month's pay and asked to go home to say goodbye to their families, but failed to return. The remainder are now locked in the compound.

Doubt is expressed among observers here if the two emissaries the grand vizier is sending to Angora will ever return to Constantinople.

The proclamation reiterates the statement of President Joseph Bittu, of upper Silesia, that the Poles are planning a military occupation of the upper Silesian plebiscite area and of German territory to the north and east of that area.

The proclamation assures the Polish population that if Germany wins the plebiscite the Poles will be given "equal rights."

Case at St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—Ursula Broderick, 16, on trial in juvenile court here charged with first degree murder for killing her stepfather, Joseph F. Woodcock, in April, 1919, had made repeated threats against his life, according to the testimony of Mrs. A. R. Pearson, a new witness for the state who took the stand late yesterday.

Under cross-examination by counsel for the defense, Mrs. Pearson denied that she had quarreled with Ursula and had voluntarily offered to appear against her. She declared, however, that at one time Ursula lived at her home and she had been "robbed by the girl."

This is the third time the girl has testified in both previous instances. The girl asserts she shot in defense of her honor. In October of 1916, then only twelve, she shot and killed her father, Thomas P. Broderick, but was exonerated by a coroner's jury on testimony that she fired in her mother's defense.
